

Thank you to all of the girls and the parents for your interaction during these past few weeks. We have been delighted to receive your photographs of both yourselves and all the work you have done.

We appreciate that home schooling can have positive and negative aspects and we were really heartened by the warm response to our calls and emails.

We both look forward to working together with you face to face in the future.

Take care and enjoy the summer.